Farmington – Real Fundraising is pleased to announce that Jonathan H. Spinner, the firm's president, will be a presenter at the Center for Nonprofit Success' "Nonprofit Leadership Series" in Boston on January 21.

The Seminar – Building a Strong and Healthy Board of Directors – will be held at Simmons College, and will include three other panelists for the four hour session. Dr. Spinner will be focusing on "Creating the Caring Society," which will give participants the tools needed to orient board members to their roles as fundraising leaders for not-for-profit organizations.

Jonathan H. Spinner, Ph.D. has been involved in the not-for-profit world for 35 years in executive and fundraising positions with small agencies and national and international organizations. Now President of Real Fundraising, a consulting firm for not not-for-profit organizations specializing in development operations, Dr. Spinner's unique personal history allows him to understand the fundraising challenges facing all kinds of agencies as well as the need to respond to organizational problems beyond fundraising.

Dr. Spinner has managed capital and endowment campaigns from the micro to the monster, and has personally raised millions of dollars in face-to-face solicitation. His unique training approach for boards and campaign solicitors has proven to be thought-provoking and highly successful for all kinds of organizations, with personal interaction and hands-on availability. Dr. Spinner was chairman of the Connecticut Philanthropy Day Conference in November, 2008, and frequently speaks at various conferences in New York and New England.
